MELBOURNE

COPYRIGHT OF THESIS

For submission of thesis to Baillieu Library and School of Physiotherapy Library

Doctor of Clinical Physiotherapy

Candidates for the above degree are required to provide two permanently bound copies of the thesis for the University libraries after it has been passed by the examiners and corrections have been made. The copy for the Baillieu Library must be printed on acid free paper. Students should also publish their thesis electronically using the University of Melbourne ePrints Repository.

Candidates are asked to sign the following statement, which provides for persons wishing to read the University copies of the thesis and use it for research or private study:

"I understand that my thesis entitled:

Name in full: _____

Restricted Access

The Chairperson of the Academic Board may, on application from the author, approve a proposal of restricted access to a thesis for up to a year, or in exceptional circumstances two years. Persons wishing to read the thesis must gain the written permission of the author before access will be permitted.

A candidate requesting that their thesis be placed on restricted access must provide in writing full details of the reasons, state for what length of time the restriction is requested and obtain a letter supporting the application from the Chair of Examiners in the School/Department in which the research was carried out.

These documents should be sent to the School of Physiotherapy.
