COPY OF WORK

Please ensure that a copy of all work has been made prior to submission through the assessment boxes. On rare occasions, assignments may be lost in the system and in such cases you will be required to provide a second copy.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is the presentation by a student of an assignment that has been copied in whole or in part from another student's work, or from any other source (eg. published books or periodicals or internet sites) without due acknowledgment in the text. Students should familiarise themselves with the School of Physiotherapy plagiarism policy (in student manuals and outlined on the physiotherapy undergraduate and postgraduate resources web pages under 'assignments') and the University of Melbourne's policy on plagiarism and academic honesty (outlined on The University of Melbourne website: www.services.unimelb.edu.au/plagiarism).

COLLUSION

Collusion is the presentation by a student of an assignment as his/her own work which is in fact the result in whole or part of unauthorised collaboration with another person or persons.

STUDENT DECLARATION

I declare that:

This submission is my own work and does not involve plagiarism or collusion.

This submission is based on my own research.

All sources used by me have been documented.

This piece of work has not previously been submitted for assessment in this or any other subject.

I give permission for my assignment to be scanned for electronic checking of plagiarism.

I understand that plagiarism and collusion constitute cheating.

I understand that disciplinary action will be taken against students who engage in plagiarism and collusion as outlined in the School of Physiotherapy plagiarism policy.
